03. Mission Statement

At Green Clean Coils, our mission is to provide environmentally responsible HVAC coil cleaning solutions that improve efficiency, reduce energy costs, and promote healthier indoor air.

04. Brand Identity

Taglines capture the brand’s promise and purpose.

They help audiences quickly understand the benefits and values of Green Clean Coils.

Breathe Cleaner. Save Energy.

Eco-Friendly Coil Cleaning.

Efficiency Starts with Clean Coils.

Lower Costs with Green Clean.

05. Core Values

Sustainability – Committed to eco-friendly practices.

Trust – Reliable, professional service.

Innovation – Using safer, advanced cleaning solutions.

Efficiency – Enhancing performance while reducing energy waste.

Health – Creating cleaner, healthier spaces.

06. Voice and Tone

Voice: Professional, knowledgeable, approachable.

Tone: Clear, confident, eco-conscious, and solution-driven.

07. Logo

Primary: Combines our core identity, of HVAC (coil) cleaning with eco-friendly products. Used on website homepage, print collateral, uniforms, vehicle graphics, show signage.

25% Height of logo whitespace.

Secondary: A horizontal version with smaller symbol on the left of the wordmark. Used on website headers, letterheads, invoices, and digital templates where a horizontal layout is more functional.

50% Height of logo whitespace.

08. Logo Variations

Submark: A simplified version of the primary logo, works well as a shorthand mark when the full logo is not practical. Used for social media avatars, watermarks, secondary branding elements.

Wordmark: The brand name in Neue Haas Unica, maintains the brand when the icon is unnecessary or distracting. Used on email signatures, document headers or minimal branding applications.

09. Logo Variations

Icon: A strong standalone mark that represents the brand visually without words. Used as favicons on website, app icons, uniform patches, stickers and small-scale applications.

Monotone: Single-colour versions of the logo, to ensure clarity and consistency in limited-colour printing or on dark/light backgrounds.

10. Logo Misuses

Do not stretch or distort.

Do not alter colours.

Do not place on low-contrast or busy backgrounds.

Do not use different fonts next to the icon.

Do not apply drop shadows or visual effects.

13. Imagery

Imagery is a powerful tool to communicate the effectiveness of Green Clean Coils' services. Because we have strong before-and-after visuals, photography plays a central role in showing the clear impact of our eco-friendly cleaning process. High-quality, side-by-side comparisons highlight transformation, reinforcing trust with clients and professionalism.

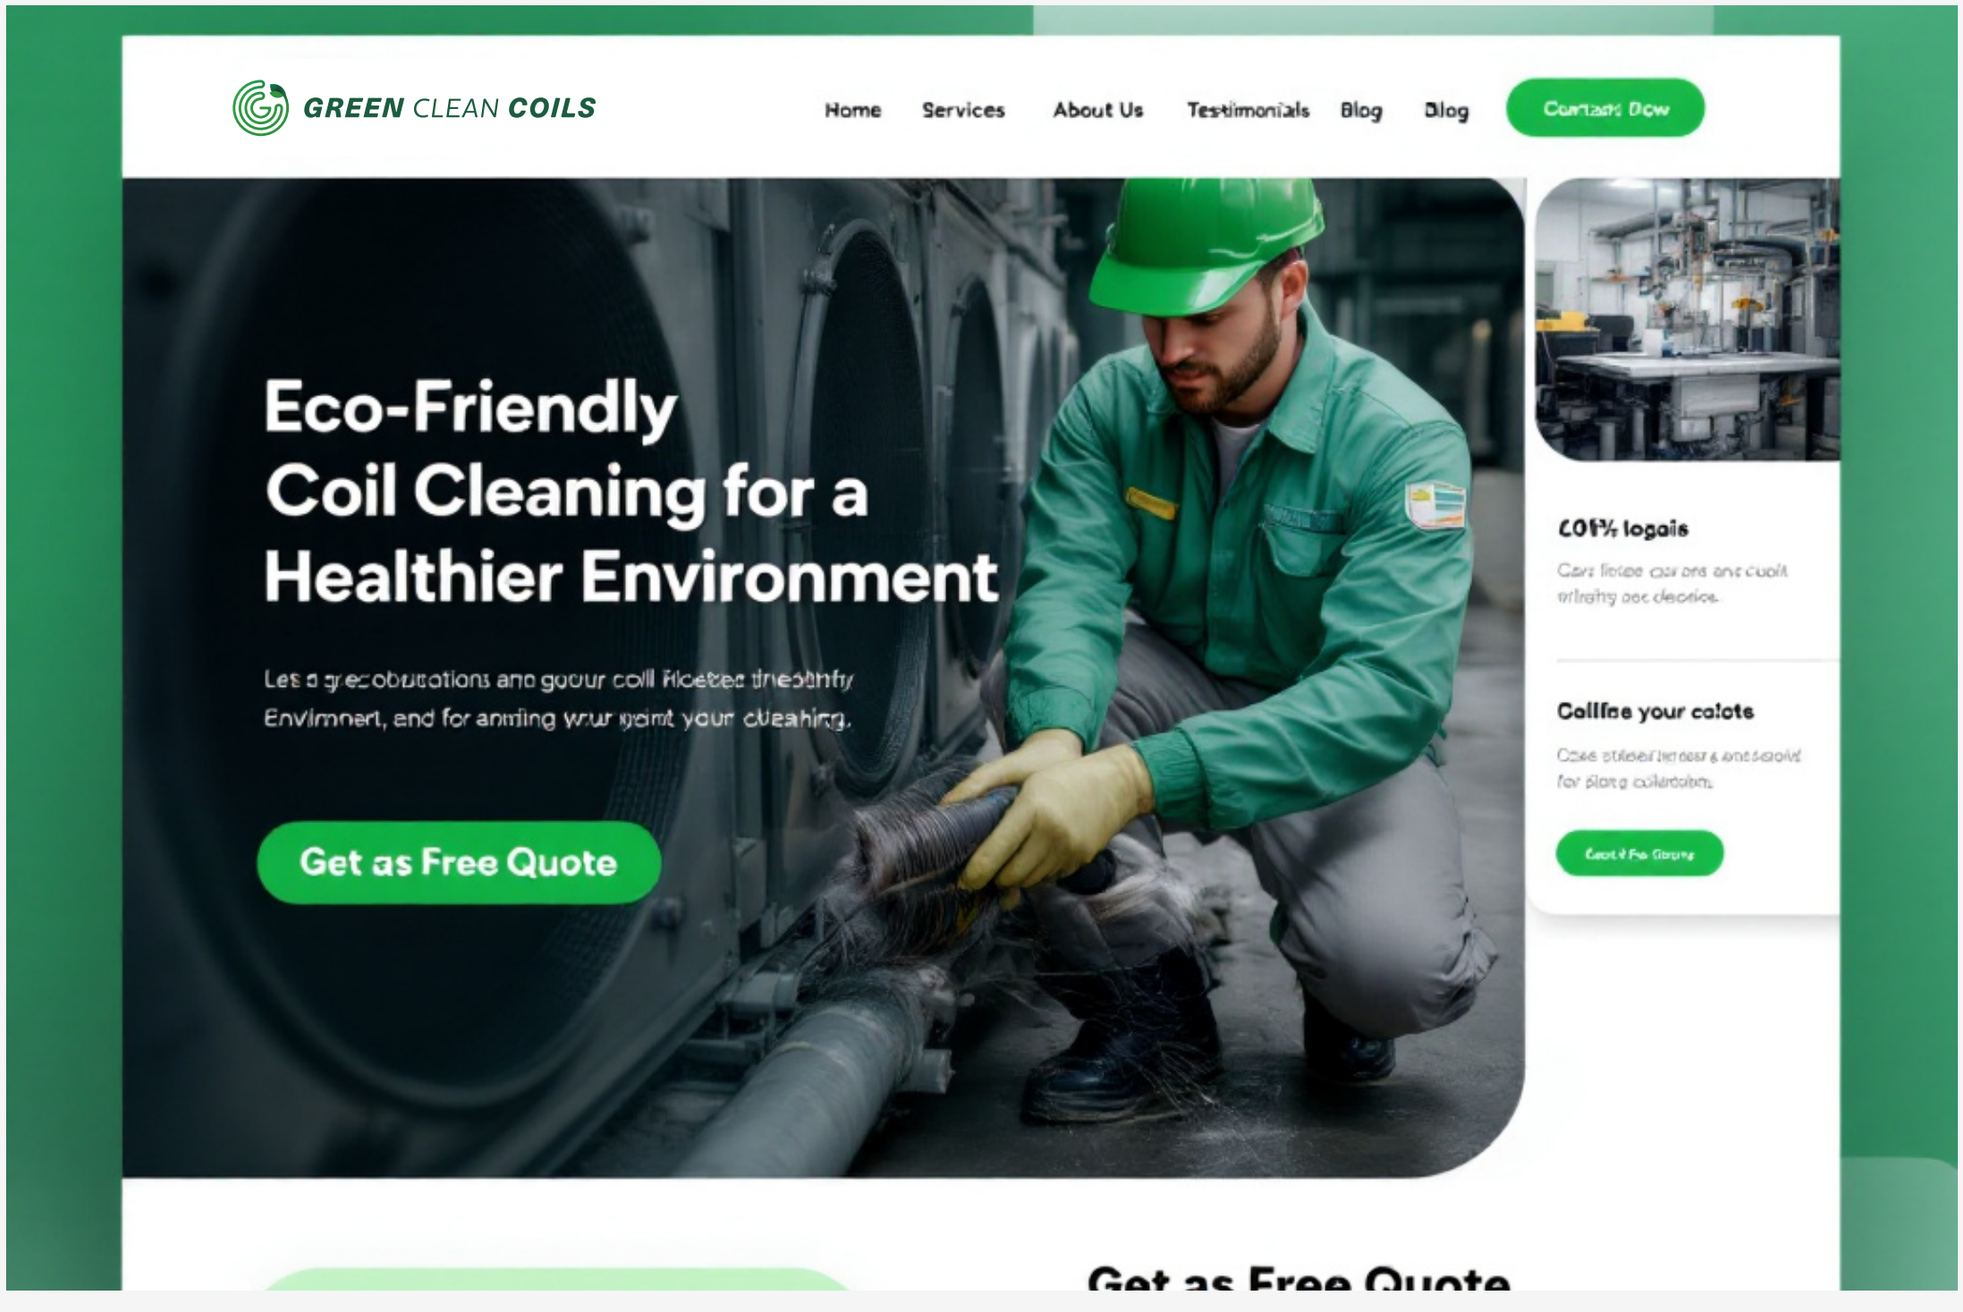
All imagery should feel clean, bright, and consistent, supporting the brand's focus on sustainability, efficiency, and healthier air.

14. Iconography

Icons provide quick, universal communication for the brand, with a consistent style to ensure clarity and brand cohesion across platforms.

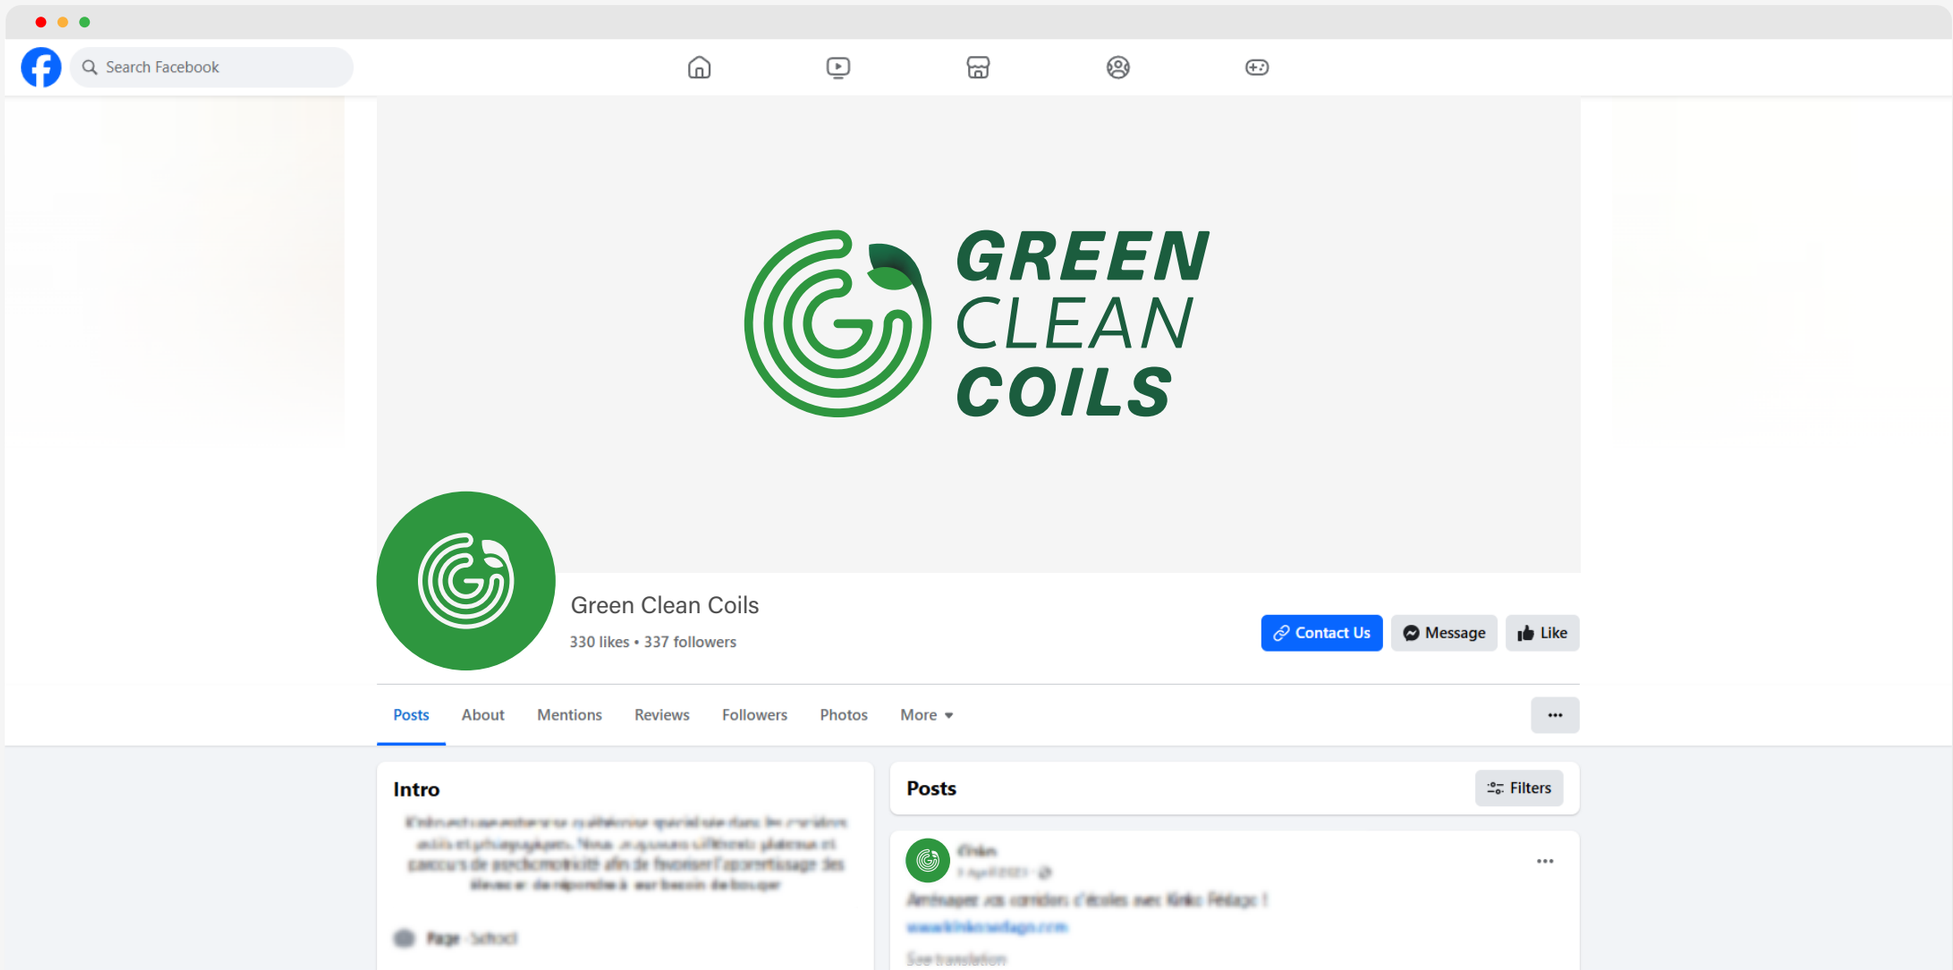
15. Website

The website is an integral part of the design system for Green Clean Coils because it is often the first place potential customers see the brand, learn about services, and get in touch.



16. Digital Presence

A consistent digital presence ensures the brand looks professional across social media, email, and online platforms where customers engage, interact and learn about the business.



17. Print Collateral

Print materials like business cards and invoices carry the brand into the physical world, ensuring professionalism in face-to-face interactions.

Business cards. invoices, letterheads, branded uniforms and decals.

18. Closing Statement

The Green Clean Coils brand is more than a logo or colour palette — it is a promise of professionalism, sustainability, and proven results. Every element in this design system has been crafted to work together, building recognition and trust at every touchpoint, from the first website visit to the moment a client sees the impact of a freshly cleaned coil.

By following these guidelines, we maintain consistency, clarity, and credibility across all communications, strengthening both our identity and our mission.
